

Multi Fruit Juice Production Unit

Name of Project	Multi Fruit Juice Production Unit
Project Location	Bokakhat District, Assam
Area of the project	4 acre
Approx. Project cost	INR 15 crores (~USD 2.31 million)
Focus sector	Food Processing
Status of approvals	Greenfield project
Project contours	There is good international demand for certain fresh fruits as well as processed fruits products. Fresh fruits identified as having good export potential are: mango, banana, litchi and exotics like passion fruit, grown in this area The project intends to tap the local fruit market for raw materials and add value to it in the form of NFC and concentrated fruit juices Bokakhat produced 3549 MT of pineapple and 1067 MT of oranges. Nearby district of Karbi Anglong produced 36687 MT of pineapple and 25297 MT of oranges
Investment Opportunities	Investors are expected to install appropriate plant and machinery, source raw material, ensure waste disposal, provide for store facility, refrigeration system and create marketing infrastructure
Connectivity	NH 37 passes through Bokakhat The nearest railway stations are Badulipar and Furkating
Proposed Infrastructure	Total connected load of about 250kW will be required. About 75 KL of water will be required every working day. Concerned authority shall facilitate supply of requisite water and power for the project
Nodal agency	Directorate of Horticulture, Department of Agriculture