

IT Start-up Incubation Centre

Name of Project	IT Start-up Incubation Centre
Project Location	Guwahati, Assam
Investment	Approx. INR 40 crore - 15 crore (~USD 6.15 million)
Land Area	Approx. 1.5 acres
Mode of Development	PPP (Public Private Participation)
Project contours	Government through PPP will create a plug and play start-up infrastructure which will be a futuristic Green Building To have a research centre for incubation, testing and development of new ideas. Provide fast efficient and transparent application and approval procedure over a single window. Government will help setting up new units through seed assistance, office rentals and technical know-how Technical knowhow and incubation support on IoT as IOT projects have tremendous potential for surveillance of forests, international borders, and generating alert in the event of natural disasters viz. earthquake, flood etc. Technical knowhow and incubation support on E-Health as Assam has significant potential for tele-medicine. The e-health solutions across the Government and Private sectors has the potential to attract investment to the tune of INR 500-600 Crores.
Investment Opportunities	Government through PPP will create a plug and play start-up infrastructure which will be a futuristic Green Building.
Connectivity	The project is planned to be setup in Guwahati and is well connected by rail, road and air.
Nodal agency	Assam Electronics Development Corporation Ltd. (AMTRON)