

Brahmaputra Expressway

Name of Project	Brahmaputra Expressway
Project Location	Sadiya to Dhubri along the banks of River Brahmaputra
Length of the project road	890 km along the river Brahmaputra
Approx. Project cost	INR 40,000 crores (~USD 6.1 billion)
Focus sector	Infrastructure
Employment	-
Status of approvals	Approved by Govt. of India. The feasibility study is commencing shortly and the bid process for selection of private sector developer will be carried out post feasibility.
Project contours	The proposed expressway, a greenfield corridor, will connect Sadiya with Dhubri touching all the major towns/ cities on south bank of Brahmaputra, significantly reducing the travel time.
Investment Opportunities	Development of project on PPP mode.
Connectivity
Proposed Infrastructure	6 lane expressway with controlled access.
Nodal agency	National Highways Authority of India