

Mass Rapid Transit System (MRTS) Phase I, Guwahati

Name of Project	Mass Rapid Transit System (MRTS) Phase I, Guwahati
Project Location	Guwahati, Assam
Area of the project / length	61.4 km in Phase I
Approx. Project cost	INR 18,020 Crore (~USD 2.77 Billion)
Focus sector	Urban Infrastructure
Employment	~500
Status of approvals	Detailed Project Report (DPR) approved
Project contours	Train with three car racks will have a carrying capacity up to 975 passengers Under Phase I, there will be four corridors namely, Dharapur-Narangi (elevated) with a length 22.6 km, M.G. Road to Khanapara (underground) 10 km, Jalukbari to Khanapara (elevated) 19.4 km and ISBT to Paltanbazar (elevated) covering a stretch of 9.4 km. There will be altogether 54 stations across all the routes.
Investment Opportunities	Development and O&M of MRTS in Design Build Operate and Transfer (DBOT)
Nodal agency	Guwahati Metro Rail Corporation Ltd. (GMRCL), a wholly owned company of Govt. of Assam